

Behavior Choices

---

Helping others with chores

Harming yourself or others

Reminding others of expectations (respectfully)

Refusing to follow directions

Distracting others during family conversation

Following directions

Showing Good sportsmanship

Throwing furniture

Cutting in line

Teasing others

Trying your hardest at a new activity

Touching inappropriately

Showing compassion

Staying with your family at an outing

Cursing

Hiding

Cleaning without being asked

Lying

Doing what you're asked

Bullying

Complimenting/encouraging others

Teasing

Being a team player

Rough Housing

Making violent threats

Sharing without prompting

Refusing to follow directions

Being On-task

Using a weapon to threaten

Defacing property

Participating

Pouting and whining

Throwing things (without intent to harm)

Acting out sexually

Having a good attitude

Standing on chairs or table

Using drugs or alcohol

Wandering from your family at an outing

Being rude – farting or belching

Taking a break instead of reacting in anger

Clean up after themselves

Arguing with sibling

Refuse to do homework

Get ready for bed on time

Biting, pinching, spitting or hitting

Respecting others' personal space

Name-calling

Making excuses or blaming others for mistake